

Washington City Paper Spring State Of The Arts

March 11, 2021

Music, Museums and Galleries, Dance and Performance, Comedy, Books, Film, Theater...

City Paper's annual guide will be a truly 'State of the Art' issue with in-depth analyses and interviews with venues, performers, and artists across all arts disciplines in D.C. Given the tumultuous year for the arts and the uncertain forecast for reopenings, we will highlight the people and places that have managed to find new ways to survive and thrive as well as those who are being left behind—and how we can help the industry as a community. With unique reporting and in stunning photos, we will depict the true state of the arts in D.C.
